DESCRIPTION & TERMS OF THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL GUITAR WORKSHOP OF NARBONNE

The workshop will be held from Saturday October 22nd (4:30p.m.) to Saturday October 29th (12:00 am) at Narbonne (FRANCE)
The different activities are : Courses (individual, large ensemble, chamber music), concerts (3 professional and 2 participants), a workshop "bodywork", meetings with guitar makers, and a premiere by Roland DYENS.

COURSES

Taught by Professors Roland DYENS and Pierre MILLAN-TRESCASES courses will be held from the morning of Sunday, October 23rd to the evening of Friday, October 28th 2016.

Individual courses: Limited to 25 participants, each participant will have 2 courses with Mr. DYENS and 2 courses with Mr. MILLAN-TRESCASES. Minimum level of proficiency required is equivalent to advanced standing at a Regional Conservatory (4 to 6 years of intensive study). Repertory is at the discretion of the participant.

Large Ensemble music conducted by Roland Dyens, original work composed by Roland Dyens, daily 90-min sessions in the early afternoon. This course is limited to 50 participants. Required level: Semi-advanced standing at a Regional Conservatory (3 to 4 years of intensive study), or equivalent.

Chamber music (duos, trios, quartets) may be formed before or during the workshop. Optional: each ensemble can get 3 to 4 lessons - based on the number of ensembles - by professors M.Olivier SALTIEL or Pierre MILLAN-TRESCASES (see Registration)

A workshop on expressive movement, involving a sensitive approach to physical preparation, will be offered by dancer and choreographer Laetitia ESCALIER. Using simple exercises this 'bodywork' workshop will explore gesture, posture, breathing, and internal harmony, in a range of performance contexts, from solo to group.

CONCERTS

Participants will have reserved seats at each of the three concerts.

Pierre MILLAN , Saturday, October 22nd at 4:30 p.m.

Roland DYENS Recital, Saturday, October 22nd at 8:30 p.m.

« Invitation à la Danse » with Olivier SALTIEL Sunday, October 23rd at 8:30 p.m.

Participants will give two concerts, on Thursday, October 27th and Friday, October 28th The original large ensemble piece composed by Roland Dyens will be premiered on that occasion.
